Thank you for the opportunity to introduce myself.
I grew up in a small town North of Chicago and moved to Austin to attend the University of Texas. That was over 40 years ago and I have been here since.

I came to faith in Jesus at the age of 30 and very quickly sensed the unmistakable call of God into ministry. Over the past 25 years I have served as youth pastor, worship leader, associate pastor, teaching pastor and church planter. I am currently one of the associate pastors at True Life Fellowship in Round Rock.

I am a very blessed father of five daughters and one son and a grandfather to soon to be 3 wonderful little ones. Four of my kids attended RRCA and three graduated from there. Anna in 2012, Jonathan in 2013, and Emily in 2016. My youngest, Caroline attended but transferred after completing 8th grade. I also had the privilege of volunteering to coach Caroline's 8th grade volleyball team, which was so much fun.

My family owned and operated Sandy's Shoes in Austin for decades. I am currently bi-vocational and am a Realtor with RE/MAX Capital City based in Round Rock. Over the years my career took me to a position as CEO of a women's shoe company that launched in the US 8 years ago. And my brother and I created the first online children's specialty retail site that eventually found itself in a battle with a startup company called Amazon. So we know the results of that!

My heart is for community. I served many years on the Metro Board of Directors of the Austin YMCA. I was selected to be the only non YMCA member to join a delegation from across the country that travelled and met with immigration officials from the US, Mexico, Guatemala and Honduras. Our mission was to develop Casa YMCA's along each nation's borders to be a safe place where immigrants under the age of 18 would not be turned over to detention officials but rather released to the YMCA, where they would be tended to and reunited with families whenever possible.

Thank you for reaching out to me and perhaps we are meant to serve together in some capacity.

Blessings
